PAINTINGS BY ARMIN C. HANSEN
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

Armin C. Hansen, a native of San Francisco, began his art studies at the California School of Design, where he remained three years, then going to Germany, where he spent two years at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Stuttgart, under Prof. Carlos Grethe. After spending some time in Munich and Paris, he went to Belgium, locating in Nieupoort, a North Sea fishing village of West Flanders. Here he remained for almost five years, painting the fisherfolk and the surrounding country. He made extensive studies on board the trawlers in both the North Sea and the White Sea. During his stay abroad, he associated with many of the most eminent artists of Europe. After having exhibited at the International Exhibition of Fine Arts in 1910, where he received an award, he was made a member of the Societe Royale des Beaux Arts of Brussels. After numerous trips to the leading art centers of Northern Europe, he returned to the United States toward the end of 1912, exhibiting at the Art Institute of Chicago and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, and at present is represented at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Since Mr. Hansen's return to California he has spent much time among the fishermen at Monterey.
